BUREAU OF V. S.

ANSWERED

Rec'd FEB 10 1917 dont appear again

Hagerstown, Md.,
Feb. 7th., 1917.

Dr. Frederick V. Beitler,
Bureau of Vital Statistics,
Baltimore, Md.

Dear Doctor:

I hereby make application for the change in name on your records, of my Sister, who died in the University Hospital, Baltimore, Md., under the name of Nellie Kelly--while her correct name is Emma L. Anderson. The following are the facts concerning the name of the deceased and to this statement I have made affidavit. My Sister, whose death occurred Oct.27,1916, has since the death of her Husband in the Baltimore, Md. Fire, become weak minded. While I have not heard from her directly in the past five years or more yet I did from time to time hear concerning her from a Mrs. Jacobs who is now dedd, and I was informed by her that on several occasions my Sister had been found under an assumed name in an unbalanced mental condition. When she last visited my home in Hagerstown, Md. #610 W. Franklin St., she showed symtoms of her weakness in mind by a very unusual amount of feeling over the loss of her Husband. I have not heard from her in any way as above stated for five years or over, but at the time of her death in the University Hospital, I was notified of her death--and the burial arrangements were made thru Undertaker Jos.B. Cook of #1003 W. Balto. St. Baltimore, Md. It is evident that at the Hospital my Sister had so notified them of her relationship to me that they at once sent me a Telegram of her death. I am at a loss to know how she entered the Hospital under the name of Nellie Kelly as she was not married again I feel certain nor could she have changed her first name in any way. The fact of our relationship stands out clear as I was at once notified of her death and I request the change of your Death records to Emma L. Anderson instead of Nellie Kelly under which name she died at the Hospital under date of Oct. 27, 1916 and was buried under dame name by Undertaker Cook on Nov. 1st. If there is any other statement or form that it will be necessary for me to file with your Department for making effective this change, please forward same and advise me of the amount of cost covering the transaction. Very truly yours,

Mrs. Emma L. Rigney

I hereby make oath that the statements made above are true

Mrs. Emma L. Rigney

N.B.
Kindly forward me copy of corrected Transcript of Death of Emma L. Anderson.
